SOCIETY

Registered charity no 1004245

CONSTITUTION OF THE BROCKLEY SOCIETY

NAME

The name of the Society shall be the Brockley Society.

OBJECTS

The Society is established for the public benefit for the following purposes in the area of the London Borough of Lewisham, which area shall hereinafter be referred to as "the area of benefit".

- (i) To stimulate public interest in the area of benefit.
- (ii) To promote high standards of planning and architecture in the area of benefit.
- (iii) To secure the preservation, protection, development and improvement of features of historic or public interest in the area of benefit.

In furtherance of the said purposes but not otherwise the Society through its General Purpose Committee shall have the following powers:-

1. To promote research into subjects directly connected with the objectives of the Society and to publish the results of any such research.
2. To act as a co-ordinating body and to co-operate with the local authority, planning committees, sanitary, drainage and all other local and statutory authorities, voluntary organisations, charities and persons having aims similar to those of the Society.
3. To promote or assist in promoting activities of a charitable nature throughout the area of benefit.
4. To publish papers, reports and other literature.
5. To make surveys and prepare maps and plans and collect information in relation to any place, erection or building of beauty or historic interest within the area of benefit.

p2

6. To hold meetings, lectures and exhibitions.
7. To educate public opinion and to give advice and information.
8. To raise funds and to invite and receive contributions from any person or persons whatsoever by way of subscription, donation and otherwise; provided that the Society shall not undertake any permanent trading activities in raising funds for its primary purpose.
9. To take and accept any gifts of property, whether subject to any special trusts or not.
10. To sell, let mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or funds of the Society as shall be necessary.
11. To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Society on such terms and on such security as the General Purpose Committee shall think fit, but so that the liability of individual members of the Society shall in no case extend beyond the amount of their respective annual contributions.
12. To do all such other things as are necessary for the attainment of the said purposes.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall be open to all who are interested in actively furthering the purposes of the Society. All adult members shall have the right to vote at meetings of the Society.
